

Second Trailer for Kerala Crime Files Season 2 Out Now; Streaming from June 20 on JioHotstar

Kerala Crime Files, the first-ever Malayalam Hotstar Specials, redefined storytelling in Kerala. Now, the much-anticipated Season 2 is on its way — with the second trailer officially released and the streaming date confirmed for June 20.

Titled "Kerala Crime Files Season 2 – The Search for CPO Ambili Raju," the new season raises the stakes with the gripping case of missing Civil Police Officer, Ambili Raju. The 1:30 minutes trailer teases a more intense storyline.

Directed by Ahammed Khabeer, with story, screenplay, and dialogues by Bahul Ramesh, the series unfolds against a tense crime investigation backdrop. It is produced by Hassan Rasheed, Ahammed Khabeer, and Jithin Stanislaus under the Monkey Business banner.

The cast features Arjun Radhakrishnan, Aju Varghese, Lal, Indrans, Harisree Ashokan, Renjit Shekar, Sanju Sanichen, Suresh Babu, Navas Vallikunnu, Noorin Shereef, Jeo Baby, Shibla Fara, and Bilas Chandrahasan in key roles.

With cinematography by Jithin Stanislaus, editing by Mahesh Bhuvanend, and a haunting score by Hesham Abdul Wahab, Kerala Crime Files Season 2 is all set to stream from June 20 on JioHotstar in seven Indian languages, including Malayalam, Tamil, Telugu, Kannada, Marathi, Hindi, and Bengali.
