

Asianet Launches New Family Drama “Ee Puzhayum Kadannu”

Asianet is all set to captivate audiences with its brand-new family drama “Ee Puzhayum Kadannu”, a deeply emotional and relatable serial that portrays the strength of womanhood, family bonds, and resilience in the face of adversity.

“Ee Puzhayum Kadannu” revolves around the lives of four sisters – Ganga, Kaveri, Yamuna, and Nila – and their mother, who are forced to navigate life’s challenges after the sudden demise of the family’s patriarch. Left without a male figure to anchor the household, the women confront emotional struggles, social pressures, and personal sacrifices, emerging stronger as they rebuild their lives together.

The serial beautifully captures the emotional journey of a mother and her daughters, highlighting themes of love, unity, courage, and perseverance. With its realistic storytelling and high-drama moments, “Ee Puzhayum Kadannu” promises to strike a chord with family audiences.

The show features a talented ensemble cast including Gomathi Priya, Kunjikrishan, Nisha Sarang, Haritha Nair, Revathy, Lakshya, and Prabin, bringing depth and authenticity to their characters. The series is directed by Vishnu Chandran, known for his sensitive handling of family-centric narratives.

With its strong performances, relatable characters, and emotionally engaging plot, “Ee Puzhayum Kadannu” is poised to become a favorite among viewers.

Tune in to “Ee Puzhayum Kadannu” on Asianet from February 2, airing Monday to Friday at 9:30 PM
