

Mollywood Times – Streaming on JioHotstar from July 3

Taking audiences behind the scenes of the Malayalam film industry and into its complex realities, the much-acclaimed film "Mollywood Times" begins streaming on JioHotstar from July 3. Written by Ramu Sunil and directed by Abhinav Sunder Nayak, the film is produced by Ashiq Usman under the banner of Ashiq Usman Productions.

The film follows the story of Vineeth Madhavan, an aspiring filmmaker who dreams of making his debut film, one that will be remembered forever in the history of Malayalam cinema. His journey towards fulfilling that dream unfolds through the challenges he faces, the politics of the film industry, creative conflicts, and deeply personal struggles.

Naslen plays the central character, with Sharafudheen, Vineeth Sreenivasan, Sangeeth Prathap, Prasanth Alexander, Jagadish, Chandu Salimkumar, and Gopika Ramesh in key roles. Basil Joseph also makes a special appearance.

The film's cinematography is by Viswajith Odukkathil, while editing is handled by Nidhin Raj Arol and Abhinav Sunder Nayak. The music is composed by Jakes Bejoy.

"Mollywood Times" will be streaming from July 3 on JioHotstar in Malayalam, Tamil, Telugu, Kannada, and Hindi.

About JioHotstar

JioHotstar is one of India's leading streaming platforms, formed through the coming together of JioCinema and Disney+ Hotstar. With a vast content library and innovative streaming experience, JioHotstar continues to bring diverse entertainment to audiences across the country.